Before and After School Licensed Recreation Programs. The “AM/PM” and “PM ONLY” programs are licensed recreation programs providing a variety of activities for children ages 5 to 13. The program’s goal is the total well-being and safety of each and every child. Educational activities, breakfast, snacks, arts and crafts, guest speakers and homework time are offered by caring, adult staff members. The programs are regulated by the Arizona Department of Health Services and can accept DES qualifying families.

Pre-registration is required, including a non-refundable registration fee for the school year. Registration must be completed at least 2 business days prior to program site attendance. As part of registration, each family will select one of the programs below. Registration booklets with more detailed information are available at each site or at the Glendale Parks and Recreation office at 5850 W. Glendale Ave. For more information including registration fees, click here or call (623) 930-2832 or (623) 930-2018.

Calling all GLENDALE Centenarians! Do you know a Glendale resident who is 100 years or older? We want to know them, too! The city of Glendale is celebrating its centennial and is looking for residents who can be honored along the centennial journey. In addition to seeking out the oldest Glendale residents, the city is trying to find a resident who has resided in Glendale the longest number of years.

The official Centennial anniversary is June 10, 2010. Throughout the year, the city will commemorate this significant anniversary by engaging residents to participate in events and contests while learning about the rich history of Glendale.

Glendale University Graduate Class at the City Court. Registration is now available for a continuing education opportunity for Glendale residents who have previously graduated from the 101 class of Glendale University.

In this class, participants will see first-hand the operation of the municipal court system. This two-session class will focus on learning the Domestic Violence laws in Arizona. The first night will also cover the role of the prosecutor, defense attorney, judge and jury. The second night will be an interactive session where the students participate in a mock trial. Both classes will be held at the Glendale City Court complex, located at 5711 W. Glendale Ave. from 6 -8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 23 and Thursday, Sept. 24. Students are also asked to leave all non-essential items at home, as everyone must pass through security prior to entering the court room.

Registration for this graduate class is due no later than Friday, Sept. 18. For more information or to register, click here.

Glendale University 101. If the Graduate Classes advertised in this newsletter look interesting to you, but you haven't taken Glendale University 101 yet, good news! The 10-week, fall 2009 class begins August 26. Click here or call (623) 930-2868 for more information or to register!

Glendale 11 Wins a Telly Award. Glendale 11, the city's cable TV station, is the recipient of a Telly Award in recognition of its outstanding programming in the Information Program category. Glendale 11 received a Bronze Award for "Glendale Dimensions."

The Telly Awards honor the best in local, regional and national cable television programs and commercials as well as the finest video and film productions. The Telly Awards receive more than 14,000 entries from all 50 states and 5 continents.

"Glendale Dimensions" is a 30 minute interview show hosted by Glendale City Manager Ed Beasley. The award-winning episode features Beasley interviewing Mickey Ollson, zoo director for the Wildlife World Zoo. The show takes a comprehensive look at the zoo's impact on the community, while highlighting its educational outreach and interactive exhibits.

Emmy Award-winning Glendale 11 airs on Cox and Qwest Channel 11, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. For more information and a complete viewer's program guide, click here.
